D.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.6280/2003

Ram Kumar Vs. 1. State of Rajasthan
2. Collector, Hanumangarh.
3. Union of India.

Date : 28.11.2007

PRESENT

HON'BLE ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE MR. RAJESH BALIA
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE BHANWAROO KHAN

Mr. R.C. Gaur for the petitioner.

Since the order was passed on 24th March, 2006 and the directions were issued to furnish the report about the implementation of suggestions made by the Committee constituted by the High Court, the compliance report was submitted on 19.4.2007. Since then the learned counsel for the petitioner has been seeking time to go through the progress report and to mak his submission, if any, for which the case was adjourned on 25.7.2007, 23.8.2007, 19.9.2007, 14.11.2007 and 26.11.2007. Still no objection has been made to that report by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Today again learned counsel for the petitioner was not in a position to point out any objection to that report except to submit that independent report may be called from independent agency. Suffice it to say that suggestions were made by a Committee constituted by this Court and in compliance thereof the directions were issued by the Court and ultimately when the compliance report has been submitted, the petitioner has been avoiding to point out anything about non-compliance of the suggestions made by the Committee or any factual misrepresentation by the Committee.

In these circumstances, we are of the opinion that report submitted by the Committee deserves to be accepted and no directions are needed for the purpose of keeping this petition pending. However, if any fresh problem arises, the parties are free to move the Court by appropriate application.

The writ petition is accordingly, disposed of.
